Superintendent's Highlights

Working with students and teachers, the board of trustees found that many of the goals were completed. They then set new goals which included 1) setting a policy for teacher and staff evaluations, 2) develop a concise, written curriculum for each program, 3) assess the professional needs of staff members and offer suggestions for improved performance, 4) complete the projects and priorities set for 1996-97, 5) work with students more closely and maintain a higher standard of excellence, 6) communicate continually with the patrons through various means such as a newsletter, parent teacher conferences and individual interaction through an inviting school.

Progress Towards Meeting District Goals

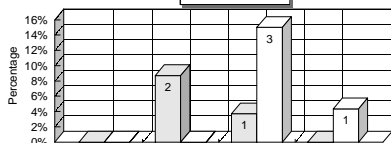

1996-97 Goals	Progress
Computers in every classroom	Accomplished and upgraded
Students to meet State and District graduation requirements	Accomplished and expanded
Performance Standards set	Will be revised to coordinate with the State
Writing will be emphasized in all Curricular areas	In process with the revised curriculum
Curriculum will be evaluated each year	Upon evaluation, it was decided to have a curriculum audit and to upgrade the course requirements K-12
Teachers will be trained and competent in using computer equipment and software in the classroom	Teachers were trained. However, there will be an emphasis on the new computer requirements for teachers
Community resources will be used to help students learn specific skills, etc.	The school district is using programs such as School to Work, School Improvement, apprenticeships, inviting knowledgeable people from the community into the schools to share their knowledge.
